“The best charity is giving water to drink”

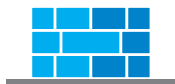

Prophet Muhammad
Salallahu Alaihi Wasallam

Clean water not only saves lives through the provision of safe drinking water, but also has a much wider impact including sanitation, growing food and sustaining livestock.

Water is a luxury for the people of Western Kenya - especially running water. Most people walk to wells to collect water on a daily basis. Some having to walk up to three kilometres to the nearest well.

Medicine is a much sought after luxury in Western Kenya. It is difficult to find a doctor to diagnose and then a pharmacy to dispense medicine.

♥ Orphans & Widows

“ He who takes care of an orphan, whether he is his relative or a stranger, will be in jannah with me like these two ”

The narrator, Malik bin Anas raised his forefinger and middle finger for illustration.

Prophet Muhammad
Salallahu Alaihi Wasallam

Orphans

We support many orphans in dire conditions, living with single guardians e.g. grandparents, uncles and aunts.

Widows

It is very difficult for widows to financially support themselves, and through the provision of food and basic needs throughout the year we can bring comfort to their lives.

Orphan & Widow Sponsorships

Orphan: £300/year

Orphan & Hifz: £500/year

Widow: £300/year

School Meals & Education

Reality for our children is but a dream for school children in western Kenya. The ill fitting uniforms is just something we can see but for most school children breakfast and lunch is non-existent. One meal a day at home usually consisting of only maize and some sugar cane is the staple diet of the Kenyan youth. Vegetables and protein is not part of the main diet and is not seen in the villages of western Kenya.

Angel Welfare & Education Trust provide porridge for 1200 students across 3 schools on a daily basis throughout the school year.

A young boy with dark skin and short hair is standing on dry, reddish-brown earth with some sparse dry grass. He is wearing a green V-neck sweater over a light blue collared shirt, olive green shorts, and dark brown shoes with white socks. He is looking directly at the camera with a slight smile and his tongue sticking out. The background is a vast, open landscape under bright sunlight.

“None of you truly believes (in Allah) until he loves for his brother what he loves for himself.”

Prophet Muhammad
